

Maximizing Portfolios With Investing And Commodities Trading; Triton Capital Advisors, LLC

Triton Capital Advisors, LLC proudly announces the introduction of their highly anticipated Website, www.tritonca.com, which delivers an interactive and unique alternative investments platform for institutions, high net worth investors and investment advisors. The team at Triton Capital Advisors, LLC has over four decades of vast investment experience, which allows them to provide investors with the highest standards of services. They are committed to utilizing their extremely valuable networks and knowledge to assist investors in selecting suitable managed futures programs. Turn to www.tritonca.com today to explore alternative investment solutions.

Triton Capital Advisors, LLC has a thorough understanding of alternative investments and commodities trading, as their team consists of knowledgeable and highly experienced members. Thanks to the many affiliations established throughout the years, Triton Capital Advisors, LLC can now offer clients public and private managed future fund products, such commodity reading advisors programs, multi-manager funds, funds of funds, and limited partnerships.

Joining together to form the core team of Triton Capital Advisors, LLC and the powerful solution of www.tritonca.com are Jay Ramey, Richard Singer, and Jonathan Siegel.

Jay Ramey is licensed and registered as both a series 3 and series 30 Commodity Broker and a Series 7, Series 63 Securities Broker. He has over 11 years of experience in the financial services industry and has served in multiple functions in the alternative investment industry. As an account executive in 1971, Richard Singer started his career with Bache and company, where he found his passion for the futures market. He has since established a distinguished 30+ year career as a consultant, broker and trader. Jonathan Siegel brings more than thirty years of management experience to Triton Capital Advisors, LLC. He started his career with companies like Merrill Lynch and E.F. Hutton as a prestigious broker.

Through extensive research and due diligence, www.tritonca.com has established long term relationships with clients, commodity trading advisers, managed alternative investment funds in the alternative investment industry. They assist in the process of choosing commodity-trading advisors (CTAs) for both public and private partnerships and client's portfolios. A qualitative and quantitative process helps accomplish this, as a variety of factors are evaluated in order for www.tritonca.com to access managed futures funds advisors and programs from the most recognizable names in the managed futures sector.

More and more people, from experienced alternative investment advisors, to individual investors, to institutional investors, choose www.tritonca.com for guidance and assistance with commodity funds, commodities investments, and other alternative investments.

The portfolio strategies, research, and manager platforms of Triton Capital Advisors, LLC are dedicated to managed futures investments. This keen focus allows www.tritonca.com to deliver clients with access to advisors and products, which they feel agree with their investment goals and needs. Contact Triton Capital Advisors, LLC today at 866-856-6292